

REVISED CATALOGUE
OF THE
PALACE GRANTHAPURA (LIBRARY),
TRIVANDRUM.

EDITED BY
K. SAMBASIVA SASTRI,
Curator of the Department for the Publication of Sanskrit Manuscripts, Trivandrum.

PUBLISHED UNDER THE COMMAND
OF
HER HIGHNESS THE MAHARANI REGENT OF TRAVANCORE,
MEMBER OF THE IMPERIAL ORDER OF THE CROWN OF INDIA.

TRIVANDRUM:
SUPREMACY GOVERNMENT PRESS
1929.

From the earliest times, the Rulers of Travancore, had evinced great interest in securing and preserving Sanskrit works on literature, sciences &c. These works consisted of palm-leaf manuscripts as printed books were not then available. It was His Highness Srati Thirunal Maharaja (1829-47) who took definite measures for collecting and preserving such manuscripts existing in the Palace Library. His Highness, besides being a linguist, poet and musician, was the author of many musical compositions and devotional poems which have since become very popular in the country. These manuscripts are said to have been kept above the ceiling of the Palace Kitchen known as the Kochu Madappalli, with a view to afford them shelter from the attacks of worms and white ants. His Highness Uthram Thirunal Maharaja (1847-69) had the manuscripts removed from the kitchen and kept in the building which has ever since been their permanent abode. During the reign of His Highness Ayilam Thirunal (1869-80) who was a distinguished patron of art and letters and a musician, the manuscripts and books were kept in an orderly fashion, arranged on shelves made for the purpose. His Highness Vankham Thirunal Maharaja (1880-84) who had very high attainments in eastern and western culture and was a liberal patron of Sanskrit learning, planned the scheme of organising a big manuscripts library under the guidance of the eminent poet and Sanskritist of the day, the late Kerala Varma Valia Koll Tampuran C. S. I. The learned Pandits of the time were invited to work in the library and valuable works were studied and revised by them. Worn out manuscripts were got transcribed on paper and the library was enriched by the addition of all printed books in Sanskrit available at the time. During the glorious reign of His Highness Sri Maham Thirunal Maharaja, which lasted for 39 years from 1885, a fresh impetus was given to the study of Sanskrit with the advice of the late Kerala Varma Valia Koll Tampuran. To give a wider scope to the academic Sanskrit culture confined till then to the Palace Granthapura, a Sanskrit College was started in the year 1889, at the capital which has been the seat of Sanskrit studies for long centuries, creating a golden epoch in the history of Sanskrit learning in the State. Although the system of revising and studying manuscripts by Pandits was stopped in the Granthapuram (Library-room), owing to the fact that the Pandits were drafted to the Sanskrit College, it was expanding in another direction: all the important books in Sanskrit and other allied languages having been subscribed for, the printed books of the library grew immensely in number. A catalogue of manuscripts, transcripts and printed books in Sanskrit, as found in the library, was prepared in Devanagari and printed in the Niraya Sagar Press, Bombay, in the year 1895. Since Kerala Varma Valia Koll Tampuran left the land of the living, many attempts are known to have been made for preparing a systematic catalogue of the library. When Her Highness Maha Rani Sri Sati Lakshmi Bai, an accomplished lady and ardent promoter of Sanskrit learning, was installed as Regent in September 1924, the manuscripts library was badly in need of renovation. Many manuscripts were found exceedingly worn-out and decayed; and in order to save them from extinction, it was highly necessary to take transcripts thereof on paper. There was also a large stock of printed books in Sanskrit and other languages purchased for and presented to the library during the preceding 50 years, which had not even been brought into account. Some additions were also made under Her Highness' command. Under the circumstances, Her Highness was pleased to sanction a temporary staff of Pandits being appointed for taking transcripts of worn-out manuscripts and preparing an exhaustive catalogue of the library and also to command that the work of the temporary staff should be supervised by me personally. The staff worked for 15 months from May 1926 to August 1927, and the catalogue has been got through the Press within a period of two years from August 1927. It is a matter of gratification to me that it has been possible for me to carry out the work so kindly entrusted by Her Highness without prejudice to my duties as Curator and to submit this catalogue to Her Highness.

Besides manuscripts and books in Sanskrit, the present catalogue includes those in Malayalam, Tamil, Hindi &c., in the library. Many alterations have of necessity been made in the particulars given in the catalogue, in respect of names of authors and works. For instance, the author of the Setu Bandha (Daśamukha Vadhā) is now given as Pravarasena instead of Kṛṣṇadāsa, on the authority of the colophons of the manuscript of the work. In the previous catalogue, the name of a commentary on the Parīkhashendrasūtra is given as Gāḍa which is now corrected as Agāḍa (lit. free from disease), for not only has the latter title the support of the text but is also quite in consonance with the name of the author Vaidyanātha (lit. the chief physician). Certain codices were found to contain more works than before and the number of such works in the present catalogue comes to 48. The total number of manuscripts and books in the previous catalogue amounted to 2535; while as a result of subsequent additions of printed books and transcripts and the present scrutiny of manuscripts, it has now risen to 4775. The third, seventh and eighth columns are additions in the present catalogue. The third column gives the names of works in Roman characters, the seventh the number of Granthas contained in each work (each Grantha being considered as a unit of 32 letters) and the eighth the description and date of manuscripts, as well as information of literary and historic interest.

* 73 manuscripts amounting to 173559 Granthaḥ have been transcribed.

† "एतदुल्लेखयति कालं विदुर्न निरूपनं प्रवेक्ष्यकश्चित्सहस्रम्"

For the convenience of reference all the columns except the first and the last in respect of Sanskrit manuscripts, transcripts and printed books, are printed in English. Manuscripts and printed books in Malayalam and Tamil are given in the Malayalam characters, while Marathi, Hindi and other books in Devanagiri characters.

The manuscripts and transcripts and books are classified in the following order :—

|--|----------------|
| 1. Sanskrit manuscripts on palm leaves | pages 1 to 97. |
| 2. Printed books and transcripts in Sanskrit. | " 98 to 201. |
| 3. Malayalam and Tamil manuscripts on palm leaves | " 202 to 212. |
| 4. Printed books in Malayalam | " 213 to 219. |
| 5. Printed books in Tamil | " 220. |
| 6. Printed books in Hindi, Marathi and other languages | " 221 to 223. |
| 7. Printed books in English. | " 224 to 226. |

All manuscripts and printed books are numbered consecutively. For different works contained in one codex, only one number is given.

In the Śrauta works are included works on Kalpa and Gṛhya ; in the Vedānta, Sāṃkhya and Yoga works and in the Nyāya, Vaiśeṣika works.
